#	COMMENTS FOR SESSION 3:	DATE
1	All of Pat's sessions have been very useful, it's been helpful to know some of the theories behind what we do and hear about other people's experiences.	1/20/2024 8:02 AM
2	this was an excellent course. I learned a lot and am excited about this topic. Pat did a stellar job at breaking down the information and reviewing an otherwise intimidating book.	1/20/2024 8:00 AM
3	Amazingly rich review of the content. I really appreciated Pat's intentionality about breaking the session up in terms of format in order to keep everybody engaged. It was a lot of sitting, and one suggestion would be to do something fairly kinetic during the breaks.	1/20/2024 8:00 AM
4	I love hers style of teaching through the book. Very effective.	1/20/2024 7:57 AM
5	Amazing and interactive program! This is the content I have needed since becoming a clerkship director.	1/20/2024 7:56 AM
6	Extremely helpful and rewarding session.	1/20/2024 7:51 AM
7	Great exercise for topic; would love for these cards to be give to us	1/20/2024 7:47 AM
8	Made a very dry subject come to life!! Learned so much!	1/20/2024 7:16 AM
9	I love this book. With the allotted time, she did the best anyone could do. Alternatively we could have Q2 months ASL evening Zooms and spread a more detailed approach to many of the things we cover over the timespan of the program.	1/19/2024 10:57 PM
10	I found the sessions and book relevant. Pat demonstrated her expertise in the subject matter and it would have been more engaging to use some of her own learning materials - technology for displaying tables, a microphone, poll everywhere instead of white paper. I also feel that all passive learning should try to be condensed because it is hard to stay focused these days. Thanks Pat and team for the time spent on this session!	1/19/2024 10:14 PM
11	When asking to refer to tables please provide a page number since this book didn't correspond to chapter number. Wasted too much time flipping pages to actually absorb the info! Also need some type of visual aid	1/19/2024 6:34 PM
12	Pat rules the school. What I mean by that, is that I am so impressed that Pat is able to teach material that is so dense so effectively.	1/19/2024 3:57 PM

#	COMMENTS FOR SESSION 4:	DATE
1	Would be better, if there was time, to be introduced to some of the most popular technologies used in teaching.	1/20/2024 8:05 AM
2	I appreciate this topic and time spent on this. personally I feel behind in this area and was glad to be exposed to the information	1/20/2024 8:00 AM
3	Same thing -- I will take the lego simulation home with me and try to incorporate it with our leaders.	1/20/2024 7:57 AM
4	Amazing session! It was nice to review the content again from day 1, but expanding upon it.	1/20/2024 7:56 AM
5	Loved the Lego exercise!	1/20/2024 7:51 AM
6	Need info on how to access low and high tech resources	1/20/2024 7:47 AM
7	Wonderful addin activities. Could have been a little shorter with more time spent on perhaps presenting to groups - things we will use more frequently. She is amazing	1/20/2024 7:16 AM
8	Strengths: opportunities to work in teams ie legos and share ideas ie tech examples for each chapter Areas for improvement: I might have been saturated but I did not fully grasp some of the busy slides on learning theory and tech overlap.	1/19/2024 10:14 PM
9	Would love to see more practical ideas for implementation and design	1/19/2024 6:34 PM
10	This is an important topic but some of the exercises felt redundant. Mostly limited by the types of technology available to consider integrating into our learning.	1/19/2024 3:57 PM
11	Enjoyed the interactive portion of the sessions.	1/19/2024 3:55 PM

1	It was a little bit of a dense day, but again, I appreciate how Pat goes about teaching it all.	1/20/2024 8:02 AM
2	I really like the changes of seating with assignments!	1/20/2024 8:00 AM
3	This is an excellent program. Very interactive and relevant with discussions that are applicable to our day to day.	1/20/2024 7:57 AM
4	small group activities are great to break up the day	1/20/2024 7:57 AM
5	The days are a bit dense, maybe spacing the info out over time 3.5 days instead of 3.	1/20/2024 7:56 AM
6	Thank you for the standing desks.	1/19/2024 3:57 PM
7	loved today's sessions, right amount of group work and didactics	1/19/2024 3:56 PM
8	GREAT content. Only wish is for windows in the conference room!	1/19/2024 3:55 PM
