1	Fantastic discussion. I felt that Dr. Mylona's approach to delivering this topic was just at the right level, and I really appreciated her intentionality with contextualizing it within the group's educational interest, as well as her quick rapport with us. I took home a lot of "pearls" that I will be working to integrate into my work.	1/29/2024 10:27 AM

6	Dr Mylona was a wonderful educator and leader with what seemed like experience in current leadership topics. While ppt can feel dry I enjoyed the interactive learning activities that she integrated into her talk.	1/20/2024 4:45 PM
7	I understand that not all participants have the same prior experiences. at this point in my career I need more guidance on navigating the tough stuff in leadership - which may be coming.	1/20/2024 4:03 PM

#	COMMENTS FOR SESSION 6:	DATE
1	This was amazing! I wrote down so many notes on the handouts, practiced these skills in a dialogue with my wife who is currently navigating a work negotiation with her division chief, and put them into practice in a meeting I had with my chair when I returned to work later that week. I see myself referencing this session as an automatic go-to with future work negotiations (and at home!).	1/29/2024 10:27 AM
2	This was the best lecture that I have heard on negotiation. Very specific examples and helpful information for planning.	1/26/2024 1:49 PM
3	This topic was amazing! The speaker really empowered us and also gave us the tools to better negotiate. One of the best sessions!	1/20/2024 5:29 PM

#	COMMENTS FOR SESSION 7:	DATE
1	This session opened my mind SO MUCH! This was truly one of the most educationally-rich two hours I have had in any professional development setting. I really liked how Dr. Hammoud had us practice in triads, as well as lead a demonstration as an expert in this area. I have already employed these skills in three meetings with students, residents, and colleague since leaving ASL.	1/29/2024 10:27 AM
2	Again, very helpful and specific suggestions and practices.	1/26/2024 1:49 PM
3	I didn't think coaching would be very helpful but it was a great session!	1/24/2024 8:02 PM
4	Thinking of how to incorporate coaching into our programs	1/21/2024 7:24 AM
5	This was hands down my favorite session. I have never thought about having a coach before, but I see the usefulness of it. It definitely is something I plan to incorporate into my professional life.	1/20/2024 5:29 PM
6	Dr Hammoud is teaching, and leadership styles are inspiring! I wish we could have more time with her. Please be sure her slides are shared. Thank you!!!	1/20/2024 4:45 PM

#	COMMENTS FOR SESSION 8:	DATE
1	Very valuable way to be thinking about an important aspect of our professional development with an eye toward our career's medium- and long-term goals. I hadn't previously considered the importance of having a variety of experience, hierarchical level, and geography; so the exercise of mapping out our own networks was very eye-opening and thought-provoking.	1/29/2024 10:27 AM
2	Slight less helpful, I have had some help with this in the past with mentors in my department, however good to hear.	1/26/2024 1:49 PM
3	Networking/networks is important but something that would be most relevant for junior faculty. A lot of folks were late associate level experience and faculty.	1/25/2024 12:03 PM
4	Highlighted positive and negatives of my present network and how to develop ig	1/21/2024 7:24 AM
5	This was helpful to think about how to best begin to build out my network.	1/20/2024 5:29 PM

1	Overall the program was extremely important. My greatest wish is that I had this course five years ago as an apd so it could shape my performance as a pd. While I am energized I feel that a lot of the attendee including myself probably needed this much earlier in our career and I wonder about shifting some of the focus to more junior faculty in future rounds of this course. Especially for all of the curriculum building and how learning works material.	1/25/2024 12:03 PM
2	Session were overall excellent and well done. I would appreciate incorporation of how life outside work plays into your "vision." I do not expect a session on wellness and understand that was not the focus, but so much of our decisions are impacted and or depend on our home lives and maintaining a healthy balance. It was barely mentioned and it's at least 50% of who we are as individuals and what we want out of our lives and carriers.	1/24/2024 3:01 PM
3	The program was better than I could ever have expected! Thank you for the care and thought in putting this opportunity in place. Also the food was amazing!	1/21/2024 7:24 AM
4	Need opportunity built in to address implications within our institutions	1/20/2024 5:43 PM
5	This has been so insightful and invigorating. I'm so lucky to be here!	1/20/2024 5:31 PM
6	Thank you! I think we are off to an excellent start!	1/20/2024 5:29 PM
7	Thanks for all of your hard work on this program. I am thrilled to be in the program and truly enjoying it. My only suggestion is minor... Others may feel differently, but even though my time zone is different, I think we should start at 7am like FDS does so things can wrap up earlier. I think we were all losing it at the end of each day.	1/20/2024 4:45 PM
