1	pls do not start before 930am for August eastern time zone sessions	3/4/2024 11:29 PM
2	interactive, was helpful to review articles in a group, in real time	3/2/2024 3:38 PM
3	This was SUPER helpful. I am really a novice, so even some asynchronous work on explaining IRB's and what types of research are exempt and/or expedited (in general). I think that tends to be a large barrier to research for people.	3/1/2024 9:16 AM
4	This is was too dense for the last session of the program. We were all tired and brain dead by then. May be a good first session	2/29/2024 5:19 PM
5	A long session - so difficult in that way- but super helpful. So many good resources, especially about the publishing- makes you think that publication is truly possible - and exciting!!	2/29/2024 9:21 AM
6	Dr. Steinauer has a knack for taking a subject that I think will be terribly boring and not useful for me and somehow making it very interesting, engaging, and opens my eyes to its tremendous usefulness. She is an excellent speaker!	2/29/2024 9:03 AM
7	Overall -- it would have been nice to have the 3rd ASL session with the CREOG summer retreat. With the transition to Residency CAS, this will be difficult to try to navigate all of the things that are being requested of us when we can't attend the Summer Retreat.	2/28/2024 5:07 PM
8	Wish the checklists were available at the table to facilitate discussion easier	2/28/2024 2:29 PM
