CAPSTONE PROGRAMS

The APGO Martin L. Stone, MD, Faculty Development Seminar provides an excellent opportunity for physician educators who teach medical students and residents to improve their teaching skills and learn best practices through plenary sessions, interactive small group sessions, workshops, and round tables.

The APGO Academic Scholars and Leaders Program is a nationally recognized, comprehensive educational curriculum designed to improve ob-gyn education by offering motivated faculty the skills they need to effectively enhance all aspects of scholarship and leadership.

The APGO Surgical Education Scholars Program is an 18-month journey in teaching ob-gyn faculty how to develop and implement surgical education curricula at their home institution.

The APGO Susan M. Cox, MD, Clerkship Directors' School is designed to provide both new and experienced clerkship directors with basic to advanced level information to enhance teaching activities and clerkship administration.
