by the presenter- it was bothersome now still hours later. Reading resources far more useful than actual presentation- consider not having this session on the schedule during a workshop

| 1 | Videos were prework- either ask us to watch them prior and don't show them during the session. The exercise of group moderating with limited roles assigned was not as well thought out as some of this presenters earlier excercises in other sessions. This session is not worth providing in future workshops. | 8/7/2026 4:55 PM |
